INSURICA®

Cliff is a proven surety and construction risk management thought leader who is passionate about educating and helping clients understand risk and the steps needed to build and maintain best in class surety bond and risk programs. He has experience partnering with clients, conducting assessments, and providing honest feedback using this information to implement performance-based risk and surety programs. Cliff utilizes his experience and resources to evaluate the needs of his clients and identifies actionable solutions so his clients can better strengthen and protect the businesses they have built.

EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

Cliff graduated from Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor's degree in Finance and a minor in Entrepreneurship. During his time at BGSU, he was the president of the College of Business Financial Management Society, was included in the inaugural class of BGSU's Entrepreneurship program, and co-taught business ethics at the invitation of the chair of Bowling Green's Business Law program.

He began his career in surety with Westfield Insurance, where he quickly proved himself as a leader and gained valuable experience working with complex surety programs. After six years as a surety underwriter, he joined Zurich, where he was responsible for both the Phoenix and southern Nevada markets.

Being a leader in the professional community is important to Cliff. Throughout his career, he has been highly involved with a variety of surety, construction, and financial organizations in the Phoenix community:

- Construction Financial Management Association (Former Board of Directors Member, Young Construction Finance Professionals, Membership Committee)
- Arizona Builders Alliance (Young Builders Council: 2022 Chairman, Insurance and Bonding Advisory Council, Community Service Board)
- Arizona Chapter of the Associated General Contractors (Young Constructors Forum: Past Chairman 2021, Affiliate Affairs Committee)
- Surety Association of Arizona (past President 2012)
