

The Great Resig-cession?

Preparing your business for a complicated economy

Phoenix businesses are faced today with an unprecedented environment: unpredictable labor markets, inflation in both material and operating costs, and a confusing – sometimes frightening – economic and regulatory outlook.

Join us for a panel discussion featuring four key segment experts as they examine the business environment through the lenses of both the Great Resignation and the potential Great Recession, and learn how to prepare and thrive.

Rayna Jones

Partner, Ogletree Deakins Attorneys

Rayna has extensive experience representing national and local clients on all aspects of employment law, responding to civil and regulatory inquiries. She chairs the firm's national Drug Testing Practice Group, frequently advising across the country.

Sarah Kutka

HR Consultant, Paychex

Sarah has over 20 years of experience in Human Capital and HR Outsourcing, helping businesses of scale intelligently in varied economic environments. Working strategically across all service models, she guides clients through a complex HR environment.

Nitin Gupta

CPA, Atlas CPAs & Advisors, PLLC

With over 25 years of accounting and tax experience, Nitin merged with Atlas in 2017. Advising businesses on tax issues, mergers and growth since coming to the U.S. from India in 1990 Nitin steadfastly believes in honoring his roots through service.

Matt Nelson

SVP/COO • Crest Insurance Group

Matt has advised businesses since 2005 on risk management, regulatory compliance and healthcare finance for both regional and national consulting firms. Since joining Crest in 2020, he has helped lead one of the fastest-growing firms in the U.S.

Tuesday September 20th

Registration: 5:00PM
Panel: 5:30PM
Cocktails: 6:30PM

Invitation-only event.

Please RSVP no later than 9/15.

Culinary Dropout
5632 N. 7th Street
Phoenix, AZ 85014

RSVP Now

Questions?
Call 520.730.9191

Proudly presented by:

