

Nat Carroll started with Insure Compliance in 2011. He believes in creating a better world of safety and implementing green energy technologies. Nat has a degree in Communication from Arizona State University and experience in Spanish interpreting. He has developed trainings and sales for the company since 2011. As an OSHA authorized trainer, Nat believes in giving every person the opportunity to go home healthy and safe. Nat is currently living in Mesa, AZ with his amazing wife and zoo of animals!